

It is about time that the FCC got back to its original task of assuring that the public's rights are not abused. Corporate interests continually abuse the public airwaves and communications system with their intrusions into our homes & phones. Save the Do Not Call Registry and Do Not weaken its foundation. Also, stop trying to control speech on TV and radio, you are making fools of yourselves.